Americans Support Expanding Addiction Treatment

New Survey Results Show Addressing Addiction Should be a Priority for Next President

Which of the following hypothetical Presidential candidates would you be more likely to support?

57% support candidate who says additional investment is needed for more education, prevention, and treatment of drug and alcohol addiction

42% support candidate who says we should not spend any more taxpayer dollars because there are already plenty of programs to help people with drug and alcohol addictions

Social Media Graph showing majority want Next President to make additional investment in Addiction.

Concern Too Many Non-Violent Drug Offenders are Imprisoned

Which of the following do you consider to be the more serious problem?

63% believe we put too many non-violent drug offenders in prison instead of treating their addiction

35% believe people who are in prison for drug offenses have only themselves to blame

10 20 30 40 50 60 70

Agree or Disagree: We need to treat drug and alcohol addiction more as a health problem and less as a criminal problem.

78% Agree 11% Disagree 11% Neither

Addiction is a Health Problem

Note: Nationwide online survey conducted by PrimeGroup, fielded from November 2 – November 11, 2016 with a sample size of n=1,086.